

Kitchen News

The latest launches and inspiration-packed events

WRITTEN BY EMMA FOALE

FLEXIBLE LIVING

LiberaMente from Italian kitchen company Scavolini, revels in its appealing versatile nature. The beauty lies in the way you can easily design an island or a peninsular for sociable cooking and eating. The geometric lines of the wall units are emphasised by the rich range of finishes including walnut, oak, or matt and gloss lacquered. From £18,000. scavolini.co.uk.

Perfect pattern

The geometric patterns on the Trellis stoneware collection designed by Gisela Graham will add some retro colour to your kitchen shelves. Prices start from £7 for the small jugs. For your nearest stockist, call 020 7708 6396.

HEIGHT OF STYLE

Cooker hoods are no longer an afterthought when it comes to kitchen design. Dolce, the latest wall-mounted hood to be added to the range from Elica, is available in white, pale blue, grey, orange or lime green. At 86cm wide, this full-size hood has a sinuous shape which is enhanced by a thin polished steel line. It's also operated by touch control and has a discreet LED strip light. £775. elica.co.uk

Grand impression

A highly anticipated collaboration – between stone specialists Lapidica and designer Bethan Gray – has recently produced the stunning Herringbone table (front), £30,000, and Brogue table, £21,600. Each design is made to special commission and custom-sized to your choice of marble. lapidica.com.